PLAINTIFF AMEND HIS COMPLAINT

Comes now the plaintiff, pro se, in the above style manner plaintiff amend his Complaint. plaintiff state that, the doctor name which is unknown is Dr. Nichols, who plaintiff seen on to occasion 4-18-06, and approximately 4-28-06. plaintiff state that on 4-18-06, he talk with Dr. Nichols, and inform him that plaintiff had two previous heart surgery, also prostate problem. See both Exhibit - 2 and Exhibit - 3. copies of his visit to Dr. Nichols. plaintiff further states that Dr. Nichols, ordered by faxing from Baptist Hospital, on approximately 4-18-06. plaintiff state that he was using his personal medication which he receive from the city jail on 4-8-06 which after plaintiff talk to the Nurse about getting his heart medication and his prostate medication. a Deputy call the city jail after the Nurse refuse to call. plaintiff state that he do not know the name of the Nurse on 4-8-06 and he wish to continued to call her as the Nurse unknown, until the discovery period. plaintiff further state that the morning of 4-8-06 his heart and prostate medication arrive to the county jail and that this Nurse unknown receive plaintiff medication in the Booking area and refuse to give plaintiff both medication upon arrive also plaintiff have a witness who name is

Micheal Ferguson, Booking Number 84391 who try to get this Nurse name on approximate 5-15-06 who try to get her name for me who refuse to give her name. Plaintiff that Micheal Ferguson, 84391 says he will witness that she refuse to give her name. Plaintiff state that he on 4-28-06 seen DR. Nichols, who had at that time receive Plaintiff, record from Baptist Hospital and Plaintiff saw it sitting in his Detention Center Record. Plaintiff further state that he ask DR. Nichols, the results to the fax information received on 4-28-06 and DR Nichols, stated he havnt read them yet. However, DR. Nichols, new Plaintiff needed his third heart Surgery on 4-18-06 because Plaintiff explain it to him. However, Plaintiff stated to DR. Nichols, on 4-28-06 that he didnt wanted his heart to stop beating why he wait on something to be done about his prostate and his heart Surgeries. As of this dated 5-22-06 Nothing has been done. Plaintiff state that DR. Nichols, denied Plaintiff adequate and proper need also the nurse unknown on 4-8-06 6:00 AM. On 4-27-06 Deputy Parks, also contribute to violating Plaintiff medical rights Plaintiff couldnt urinate due to not receiving his prostate medication after running out. Plaintiff ask Deputy Parks to call medical and it was an emergency situation who state that I need to put in a sick request all the time Plaintiff was also suffering with pain and Straining to urinate approximately three day before receiving prostate medications. Plaintiff state the he once again was denied medical attention on 5-11-06 to 5-16-06 by the Medical Nursing Supervisor who S. Davis, State on Exhibit B a new grievance Piled on 5-13-06 for the incident of 5-11-06 to 5-16-06. Plaintiff state that S. Davis, who is the grievance staff, is trying to manipulate Plaintiff on Exhibit B like it referred to the entire situation. However, DR. Nichols last seen plaintiff was not in May but 4-28-06 when DR. Nichols, order plaintiff a increase in prostate medication. so therefore the statement on Exhibit-B plaintiff receiving Cardura prostate medication as soon as it come in is the new denial of medical needs from from 5-11-06 to 5-16-06. Also the Medical nursing Supervisor, name unknown say on Exhibit-B that no notation was found on my chart from the hospital visit is believe to be another form of manipulation. However Plaintiff state that this information at Baptist hospital should be Confirmed by the fax which was made approximately 4-9-06 to 4-27-06 if we have to contact Baptist hospital for record of the faxing to the County Detention Facility. Plaintiff further state that Sheriff P.T. Marshal, is responsible for each inmates medical needs, plaintiff further wish to state Nurse Burkett who didn't have plaintiff heart Aspirin to keep plaintiff blood sth in on 5-22-06. Plaintiff state that this conduct is on going since he been in this institution and that he is beginning to keep record and the nurses who he find out there name she denied plaintiff on 5-22-06 morning medication and stated she would bring medication back but didn't. Plaintiff state that DR. Nichols new of plaintiff medical needs on both visits and refuse to order plaintiff both Surveys and place plaintiff life in danger by not ordering Surveys. Plaintiff state that he request to this Court ordering that he be allow to get a copy of his 1983 Suit filed in the Court because he don't have a copy and he file this action in fear he might die and want someone to be inform of his situation plaintiff state that he hope this Court don't dismiss his action because he is indigent and have to sent this copy like it is because it would be his last
